Plays Twelve Rounds Over Difficult Course in 894 Strokes.

GEORGE DUNCAN SECOND

British Star Is Stroke a Round Behind Former Champion of Antipodes.

By JOHN G. ANDERSON.

When the statistics were compiled last year for the play of the British professionals in the series of tournaments which began in the spring and ended with the qualifying rounds, it was found that Joe Kirkwood was the leader with Arthur Havers second and Duncan third. There was barely a fraction of a point difference between Kirkwood and Havers and it was felt that the latter, playing in twenty-five open medal play events, had the edge over Kirkwood with his fifteen tourneys. Neither of the first three averaged as high as 75.

The statistics of the various meda play tourneys for this year have been completed, and again it is the same name which heads the list. Kirkwood had a brilliant series of rounds at Lossiemouth, where he led the field by thirteen strokes, and this wonderful golf (he was 68 once when the second man vas 77) has given him an average of 74%, which is over a full stroke ahead of the second man, George Duncan.

The tourneys which counted in the judging of the averages were the 36 hole medal events at Rochampton, Sudbory, Gleneagies, Sanford and Romford, and the three 72 hole medal events at St. Andrews, Losslemouth and Sandwich, where the open championship was played. None of the American stars, Hagen, Barnes or Hutchison, played in a sufficient number of tourneys to be eligible for classification, as none was averaged amiless he had taken part in ten rounds in the above mentioned events.

Syracuse, Columbia, Fenn State, Carnesie Tech and Colgate here this afternoon, in the fourth annual invitation cross-country run of six miles held on cross-country run of six miles h able frequency in the future.

The midshipmen are hilarious over the form that Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not have what a champion needs nowaday. Estimate the ball is what happens to a downward smash such as Kirkwood pives, with a resultant loss of needed distance. Still, he is reckened more ideagerous in Britain than in America. Duncan firmly established himself as the leading British professional, his 6s at St. Andrews and 69 at Sandwich standing out in bold relief over other standing out in bold relief over other standing performances. He falled by a laif inch to tie for the British can be found from the firmly marked the standing of the firmly marked the form of the sanding of the most of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not have what a champion needs nowaday. Estimate the tall, did not the work of the most of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not the work of the most of the standing of the firmly marked to the game, particularly so as faction of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not the work of the most of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not the work of the most of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not the work of the most of the Kirkwood, with his downward smash at the tall, did not the work of the Mown at the first hand of the Kirkwood on the Kirkwood in his to a champion his downward smash at the tall, did not the Kirkwood with the fact that the played in the Kirkwood of championship with 281, and was in a te for fourth for the Southern open, while his general average throughout the country in a hundred rounds was 72 and his average in the three chamouthern, was just under even fours.

strangements for an exhibition of simulationships, the Open, New York and Southern, was just under even fours. Boomer supplanted Havers as the leading golding youth of Britain. If his rounds in the French open at La Boulishad been taken into consideration he would have topped the entire list, leading Kirkwood by a healthy fraction. Boomer had one round of 65 in the French open over a course 6,345 yards long, and on a day when the wind was high. He will come to America for outpen next year.

Plan to Add Feature Races at Havana Track's Meeting

The strangements for an exhibition of simulations chess play to be given by Jose R. Cabablanca of Cuba, the world's champlon, who is returning here from England, where recently he won first british Chess Federation in London. On Thursday evening, November 16, the champlon will meet all comers up to forty at the Hotel Sherman Square, where the club has its headquarters. Dykeman of Carnegie Tech Is Individual Winner.

Play a Dozen Rounds.

Elifewood played a dozen rounds over buch difficult links as Princes, St. George's, Gleneagles and Lossiemouth, for a grand total of 894 strokes. On the general assumption that the more rounds played the worse the general average, then Duncan's twenty round total of 1.515 strokes is scarcely less meritorious. Third place this year went to Aubrey Boomer, who has been touted by Harry Vardon as a sure coming champion. He leads was second, followed by Case, a youngster from Syracuse, who proved by a score of 28 to 39. Capt. Hendrix

McLane Sets Course Record
in Penn Cross-Country Run
Special Dispotch to The New York Herald.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Elmer O.
McLane, captain of last year's Red and Blue freshman team, to-day set a new record for the Cobbs Creek course in the annual handlcap cross-country run of the University of Pennsylvania. His time was 5 seconds faster than the former mark of 30 minutes, 58 seconds
made by J. L. Romig of Penn State two years ago. "Don" Head, Penn varsity dross-country captain, also finished inside the record, his time being 30 minutes, 51 seconds.

Bailey, a freshman, won the race, having 24 minutes start on McLane, who was the only man on scratch. McLane finished in fifth place. Head, Van Dyne and Ray Fisher finished in front of McLane.
